That is why so many holidaymakers from outside travel by bus to spend a beautiful day at this specific beach. In addition to the main beach, which is situated in the centre of Baska, many

ATTRACTIONS

Although Baska is not a big place, there are a variety of attractions, of which we would like to present the most important ones here.

AQUARIUM BASKA

The aquarium is located in the city center and offers guests a unique experience of the sea world and croatian Adriatic seabed. The richness and variety of Adriatic fish (cat fish, European conger, lobster, dusky serranus, octopus...) can be seen in around twenty aquariums with twenty cubic metres of sea water. The aquarium includes one of the largest collections of Adriatic molluscs and cochlea in Croatia.

THE BASKA TABLET

You can visit a copy of the Baska Tablet (BAŠĆANSKA ploca) in Jurandvor near Baska, in the church of St. Lucy. Since 1934 the original has been kept in the Croatian Academy of Sciences and Arts, Zagreb.

The 13-line certificate, written in Glagolitic script documents a donation of the Croatian king Zvonimir to the Church of St. Lucy.

NATIONAL MUSEUM OF BASKA

The local history museum in baška was opened in 1970 in the house where the pries Vinko Premuda (1870-1944) lived and worked. He was a scientist who espoused the Glagolitic script and secretary of the Old Slavonic Academy on Krk. There are more than 320 ethnographic exhibits in this museum: national folk costumes, various pieces of wooden furnitures, plates, cups, jugs, different metal, ceramic and glass dishes, amphoras etc.

BASKA GLAGOLITIC PATH

Croatian Glagolitic tradition is by all means the most distinctive segment of the history of the Croatian culture. In the memory of the Glagolitic alphabet, the Baška Glagolitic path on the island of Krk was composed of sculptures in the shape of Glagolitic letters. It starts with the sculpture in the shape of the Glagolitic letter „Az“ Treskavac, and ends with the last sculpture on the waterfront in Baška harbour. Each letter signs one of Croatian towns, and they are made of indigenous Krk limestone „sivac“.

CHURCH OF ST. LUCY-JURANDVOR

The Church of St. Lucy in Jurandvor near Baška is a Romanesque Catholic church from the year 1100 with two major medieval Croatian artifacts: the Baška Tablet, and a checkerboard-pattern carving on the bell tower that is suspected to be one of the first instances of the Croatian coat of arms.

CHURCH OF ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST

1232 years Baska castle was built by the Venetians who destroyed and burned 1380 years. On the site today is the Church of St. John the Baptist and the graveyard. The view on the whole and Baska is truly fantastic.

At that point and interesting promenade called „To the moon and back“. The name suggests a landscape that truly resembles a lunar.

BREATH TAKING VIEW!
Tip: nice walk for children; mostly shady

CHURCH OF THE MOTHER OF GOD AT GORICA

Was built in the early 15th century, and its interior is adorned by Celestin Medović's altar paintings. It is also famous for its town bell from 1594. Traditionally, it is sounded when the Bishop of Krk visits places of the Baška Valley. Church of the Mother of God at Gorica got its name by the Mount of Goričica in Jurandvor, where it was originally built. It can be reached by road, or by 237 stairs built in 19th century.

THE PARISH CHURCH OF HOLY TRINITY

It is the largest church in Baška area. Built in Baroque style in early 18th century, it contains eight altars, one of which is dedicated to the Holy Trinity. Paintings adorning the church are works of famous artists such as Fran Jurić (18th century), the Venetian Paulo Campus (16th century), and Jacopo Palma Jr. (17th century). The church also contains a priceless gift given by the Krk Frankopan Knights, an artistically wrought silver cross. The 28-meter-tall bell tower dates from 1766.
